Design Adaptations

...is the freelance design studio, notebook, testing ground, and learning endeavor of Charity Ondrizek. I write about web design tools, css tips, wordpress tutorials, blog development, productivity and sometimes just life...

This is what the tagline says about site:

"...is the freelance design studio, notebook, testing ground, and learning endeavor of Charity Ondrizek. I write about web design tools, css tips, wordpress tutorials, blog development, productivity and sometimes just life..."

I'd say give her a try, I did and she is already in my rss feeds.

Chance to introduce yourself

Filed under: Freelance — 36zero @ 10:49 am

If you are freelancer and always looking to find a way how to get people to know about you here is an unusual way. On Graphic design blog author has put an post called freelance focus. In this blog she invite all freelancers to send her a mail with some questions answered. You can get the chance. Here is first paragraph of the post what Tara has written on this subject:

"As I mentioned last week I would like to start a regular feature called freelance focus where any freelance designers (or moonlighting freelancers) are invited to answer a series of questions. I know a lot of designers thinking about going freelance or new freelance designers would be interested in your input."

The reset of article you can read here....
